

KLOVE is vital to this my community to all the communities it serves all around United States and/or abroad via the internet. It helps to provide hope the inspiration to those who are hurting and/or searching for God. We have plenty of secular stations, we don't need more, especially those preaching hatred and sex. What a tragedy it would be for someone to take away something that is good and wholesome and most of all, praised GOD!